

SOCIAL AND OTHER LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Temperance.

Minnehaha Lodge Meets.

The record-breaking attendance of the members of Minnehaha Lodge, I. O. G. T., last Tuesday evening evidenced the fact that the members were returning from mountain, lake and river resorts. Chief Templar Westdal presided and initiated three new members. T. W. Jessup, chairman of "good of the order" committee, presented a program as follows: "Reminiscences of Washington," A. N. Canfield; "Maine, Then and Now," N. B. Milliken; piano solo, Mrs. Bina Westdal; remarks, S. W. Russell. R. A. Dinmore, chairman of the committee "on good and welfare," announced that the lodge would give a complimentary reception to fifty invited guests of the lodge Tuesday evening, October 6.

W. F. McDonald announced that the first social meeting of the Minnehaha Social Club would be held at his home, Friday evening, October 9, at which time the annual election of officers of the club will be held. Mrs. A. N. Canfield, Mrs. Mary L. Bundick, Mrs. C. O. Buckingham, Mrs. Frank Dimmick and Miss Effie Bundick served refreshments.

Sons of Jonathan Election.

The annual session of the sovereign council of the Order of the Sons of Jonathan was held at Harpers Ferry, W. Va., on September 12. Representatives were present from Pioneer, Centennial, Good Will, Hope, and Empire councils, of Washington, and Potomac council, of Harpers Ferry.

Amendments were made to some important sections of the constitution, and the usual routine business dispatched. Much interest centered in the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: Sovereign chief, S. H. Wiley, of Pioneer; vice chief, John H. Riley, of Centennial; patriarch, J. H. Cox, of Potomac; secretary, William H. Young, of Centennial; treasurer, Frank J. McQuade, of Pioneer; guide, Charles H. Caho, of Hope; watchman, Wash P. Evans, of Good Will. The outlook for the growth of the order is encouraging. The next meeting of the sovereign council will be held in Washington.

Meeting of Faith Lodge.

The regular meeting of Faith Lodge, No. 14, I. O. G. T., in Odd Fellows Hall on Thirty-first Street, was held Tuesday evening. Grand Templar Russell presided, and Miss May Smith, pianist, led in the service of song. The social session was followed with a program arranged by Mrs. Dugan, which included readings by Mrs. Belt and Miss May Smith, a song by Mr. Keene, of Silver Star Lodge, and addresses by W. Payne and J. S. Blackford of the same lodge. Consideration was given in open meeting to an invitation from an agent of an evangelist temperance society, holding tent meetings, to co-operate with that movement in Georgetown. The proposition was accepted, and arrangements made for combining the workers in Good Templar and church circles in a common cause.

White Ribbons.

The September executive meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in headquarters, 522 Sixth Street northwest. The president, Mrs. Clinton Smith, was in the chair. Mrs. Amos, wife of the pastor of North Capitol Methodist Episcopal Church, conducted the devotional exercises, and Mrs. M. E. Cohen offered prayer.

Letters from Miss Susan Pollock, Mrs. Halley and others were read. The corresponding secretary and the treasurer submitted their reports, both of which were approved. It was announced that N. W. Tracy, of Kentucky, would hold a series of meetings in a tent to be pitched at Valley and U Streets, Georgetown, D. C., in the near future. This gentleman desired the endorsement of the District W. C. T. U., and a committee was appointed to attend the opening session and report to the executive board an opinion of the work carried on.

It was reported that the W. C. T. U. building, heretofore having been rented entire to another party, had passed into the hands of the board of trustees and had been renovated, refurnished and nearly every room rented. The cost of improvements had been paid from the contingent fund. The committee in charge reported a balance of over $23, with all bills settled as per contract. A vote of thanks was given the committee. Solicitation was made for proty things for the home, such as pictures, vases, draperies, rugs, etc.

Mrs. Martin announced the intention to conduct on every second Sunday in the month a meeting at the People's Mission under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

It was also announced that the opening meeting of the "Cradle Roll" of the District will be held at 522 Sixth Street on the 24th instant, and will be in the nature of a reception and farewell to one of the children, whose parents sail the 26th instant for missionary work in a foreign field. This member of the cradle roll is little Miss Birrell, granddaughter of Mrs. M. E. Catlin, one of the board of trustees.

The annual meeting was announced to be held October 27 and 28 in Calvary Baptist Sunday school house, the program for which is in the hands of the committee.

Grand Lodge Session.

The executive committee of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars met in regular session Wednesday evening at the home of the grand superintendent of juvenile temples, Mrs. J. R. Harrover, 314 B Street northeast. S. W. Russell, grand president, presided, and Miss Laura A. Bryson, past grand secretary, recorded the minutes. A. E. Shoemaker, deputy right worthy grand templar, was elected past grand chief templar to fill a vacancy.

The chair reported the several subordinate lodges in prosperous condition and made several recommendations, which were unanimously approved. The need for greater efforts on the educational line was specially emphasized in the discussion, participated in by Mrs. Netta Cole, grand chaplain; Forrest Towell, grand marshal, and Mrs. Harrover, grand superintendent. John Bryson, grand secretary, spoke of a course of illustrated temperance lectures to be given under canvas in the near future, and proposed measures by which the Good Templars might co-operate. His plans were unanimously approved. A proposal that the Grand Lodge officers pay a fraternal visit to Pioneer Lodge, Falls Church, Tuesday evening, the 13th of October, was agreed to. At the conclusion of business the hostess served refreshments.

Good Templars' Plans.

A regular session of Silver Star Lodge, No. 20, was held in Good Templar Hall on the Brookville road, Tenleytown, Thursday evening, J. T. Finney, chief templar, presided. The transaction of routine business was followed by consideration of matters of special concern. Chairman A. E. Shoemaker announced the death of Miss Luella Willett, and spoke of the Good Templar rites solemnized at her funeral. He reminded the lodge of its loss, by death, of three members within a few months, exceeding in number its members deceased in all its previous nineteen years. Secretary Forrest Towell was appointed chairman of a committee on memorials. Members of the executive committee of the Grand Lodge and members of Perserverance Lodge were present, and during a recess declared for that purpose A. E. Shoemaker, a former past grand templar was again induced into that office. A. N. Canfield, past grand templar, officiating.

The Rev. G. S. Seiple of Chambersburg, Pa., was introduced by Lodge Deputy J. S. Blackford. Mr. Seiple described the working methods of Evangelist Treacy, whom he represented, and announced that he would open a campaign, under canvas, in Georgetown the 24th instant. He received assurances of support.

The program was in charge of George Keene. Grand Templar S. W. Russell read a congratulatory message just received from the chief executive officer of the highest legislative body of the order, Joseph Mallins of Birmingham, England. Miss Lillian Eastleton gave an instrumental solo. Mr. Canfield made a special appeal to the young men to be brave and show their colors on all occasions, remarking that he recognized in the Good Templar badge but one greater protection than in all the city's police force. Mrs. Emma Corbey, acting grand vice templar, Miss Laura Bryson and Miss Lizzie Dean read temperance selections. Mr. Keene and Miss Weston Flint, Mrs. Clinton Smith, and John Bryson, in a brief address, described the remarkable progress being made in Germany.

Opening Reception.

Arrangements have been made for the opening reception of the Mothers' District, W. C. T. U., to be held at 522 Sixth Street northwest, Thursday afternoon, September 24, from 2 to 4 o'clock. This reception is in honor of a cradle roll member, Miss Marion Birrell, whose parents go to China as missionaries of the Christian Alliance. Miss Birrell is a granddaughter of Mrs. M. E. Catlin.

Many kindergarten features will be introduced in the meeting this year. Among those who delivered addresses to mothers last year were Mrs. Mussey, Mrs. Carrie Kent, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Winbinger, Mrs. Tammis Hamlin, Mrs. Weston Flint, Mrs. Clinton Smith, and Mrs. Hunt, national superintendent of mothers' meeting. The topics this year are: Family Life, September; Preparation for Winter, October; Sewing and Sewing Circles, and the Thanksgiving Story, November; Christmas Gifts, December. Other topics will also be discussed.

MUSICAL.

Arlon Singing Society Election.

The regular monthly meeting of the Arlon Singing Society was held at the Arlon Hall, 430 Eighth Street northwest, last Monday evening, with nearly all the active members present. One new active member was admitted.

After the usual routine business had been transacted the election of officers for the ensuing year was held with the following result: President, Henry Wassmann; vice president, August Schmidt; Prot. secretary, Carl F. Meyers; financial secretary, Matthew Siebert; treasurer, John Wischhausen; bibliotherapist, Conrad Siebert; banner bearer, Jac Bruegger; leader, Emil Holer; trustees, H. Dalker, Fr. Reikeweg, Jac Bruegger; delegates to the United Singing Societies of Washington, D. C., H. Wassmann, August Schmidt, H. Dalker, Jac Bruegger; delegates to the United German Societies of Washington, D. C., C. T. Myers, R. Mail, J. Wischhausen, Fr. Seebode; committee of entertainments, Jac Bruegger, August Schmidt, H. Dalker; music committee, Fr. Reikeweg, H. Schommer, Carl Holer, John Paria.

SOCIOLOGICAL.

I. M. C. Pleasure Club.

The I. M. C. Pleasure Club met at the residence of Mrs. J. Warnke, 1222 I Street. The evening was spent in music, games, recitations and solos by Mr. Hamilton, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were the Misses Daisy Odenwald, Mamie Linton, Blanche and Ella Kendig, Luiza von Versen, Frances and Helen Warnke, Mrs. G. Lane, Mrs. M. von Brandis, Mrs. A. Wilson, Mrs. J. Warnke, and J. Hickey, A. Hamilton, O. Niemeyer, J. Dugan, G. Warnke, and Master D. Warnke.

A Token of Regard.

During the session of Beacon Lodge, No. 15, I. O. O. F., held last Monday night, F. A. Stier, grand representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the United States, was presented with a handsome jeweled badge, the gift of the members of Beacon Lodge, with which Mr. Stier has been affiliated for the past forty years. The badge pertains to the degree of chivalry, which was conferred upon Mr. Stier by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its meeting in Indianapolis two years ago. This degree, it is stated, is conferred only by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The speech of presentation was made by E. W. Bradford, who spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. Stier is held by the members of Beacon Lodge, and stated that the badge, which is valued intrinsically at a considerable sum, was given to Mr. Stier as a token of the regard felt for him by the members of the lodge.

Mr. Stier has been grand representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows for the past fourteen years, and has just recently been elected to serve two years more in that capacity. He is well known in Odd Fellow circles all over the country, and is cashier of the Lincoln National Bank of this city.

Clerks' Association Dividend.

The Clerks' Mutual Benefit and Protective Association, an organization consisting of mercantile clerks which was organized in 1885, at its meeting held on Tuesday declared the annual dividend. The maximum dues are $12 a year, and the dividend declared on this occasion was $7.92, leaving $4.08 actual dues paid by the members for such benefits, at the rate of $10 a week. The election of officers last Thursday night resulted as follows: James Jrdinson, president; E. K. Plant, first vice president; C. W. Hummer, second vice president; J. Leo Kolb, third vice president; Howard C. Fisher, financial secretary; Lou J. Sullivan, recording secretary; Fred Breslau, treasurer; J. H. Hennage, warden; Maurice D. Rosenberg, attorney and counselor; Dr. C. A. Weaver, medical examiner.

Doings of the Maccabees.

J. Camden Gale has been designated by Major General Scott, of the uniform rank, K. O. T. M., to institute Anacostia Division, No. 2, Uniform Rank, which was done last night, and it now is a regularly instituted division.

On September 1, the Knights of the Maccabees throughout Supreme Tent Jurisdiction, had 356,444 members, with cash and invested funds amounting to $2,875,301.57.

King David Tent, No. 11 held a very interesting meeting last Monday night, and initiated two new members. It will hold its next review on the 25th.

National Tent, No. 1 held a very pleasant review on Monday night last, and initiated two new members by the amplified form, after which refreshments were served.

Georgetown Tent, No. 6, will hold a review on Monday night next, when a class of new members will be admitted.

The State commander, during the present month, has been dividing his time Monday nights between Georgetown Tent, No. 6, and King David, No. 11, and Tuesdays between Brightwood, No. 5, and Metropolitan, No. 12, Thursdays with District, No. 8, and Saturdays with Capital, No. 9, and as a result, good along the line is perceptible.

A real love feast was held in Brightwood Tent, No. 5, at the review held last Tuesday night, in which the members and state commander joined with a hearty good will. Sir Knight F. R. Conner, the very efficient degree master, was presented by the tent with a handsome gold watch as a reward for his services in bringing the degree team up to such high standard.

Sir Knight W. G. Worrell, a past commander of Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, has just returned from a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and Detroit, and speaks in glowing terms of his treatment by the members of Long Tent, Buffalo.

The Commanders and Record Keepers' Association held a well-attended meeting at Golden Rule Hall, 430 Ninth Street northwest, on Wednesday evening, and attended to a large amount of business for the good of the order. This association is composed of commanders, record keepers, finance keepers, and captains of the divisions of the uniform rank, the state commanders and deputies, and hold their meetings once a month, on the third Wednesday night, at Golden Rule Hall, 430 Ninth Street northwest. Matters of importance relative to uniform methods of conducting the business of the tents are discussed and plans adopted and it is such a free and easy conference, and exchange of ideas, the most learned and best informed officer of any tent can learn something. This association has made provisions for the establishing of an employment bureau for the unemployed members, whereby positions will be secured for them without cost, and this alone will pay the members, whose love for the welfare of others has a place in their hearts. No member of this association should miss a meeting.

One of the reasons for the unparalleled success of the Maccabees throughout Supreme Tent Jurisdiction is justly attributable to the excellent executive ability and personal popularity of the supreme commander, the Hon. D. P. Markey.

During the first six months of this year in Supreme Tent Jurisdiction there were added 52,129 new members.

National Hive, No. 1, L. O. T. M., is the largest hive in the city, and has nearly 200 members.

An effort is being put forth to organize a hive auxiliary to King David Tent, No. 11.

Sir Knight Wood has issued the Maccabee Directory. It is a nice little book with much in formation contained therein.

G. F. Canniff, the commander of Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, returned last Monday from his vacation.

Anacostia Division, No. 2, Uniform Rank, which was instituted last night, is officered by A. A. Prevost, captain; J. Camden Gall, first lieutenant; Fred H. Nokes, second lieutenant.

S. S. English, D. S. C., has moved to 501 Eighth Street northeast.

Deputy James Willis has organized a tent at Rockville, Md.

The Uniform Rank, K. O. T. M., has two divisions instituted in this city now, and the third one will soon be launched.

A charter list is being secured for a new tent of Maccabees at Tenleytown, D. C., and from present indications the new tent will start off with a good list of the best citizens of the town.

Elk Officials Named.

Joseph T. Fanning, grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, has completed the list of national officers as follows:

Board of governors for Elks' National Home, Meade D. Detweiler, Harrisburg, Pa.; Thomas F. McNulty, Baltimore, Md., and I. Lazarus, Lynchburg, Va.; grand esquire, Thomas E. Dunnes, San Francisco, Cal.; grand inner guard, W. H. Moreland, Colorado Springs, Colo.; grand chaplain, Rev. Walter Davenport, Buckner, Pine Bluff, Ark.

G. U. O. F. Meets.

The annual session of District Grand Lodge No. 20, of the District of Columbia, G. U. O. F., convened last Tuesday evening. Deputy Grand Master Jacob B. Askins presided, and a committee was appointed to revise the laws of the District Grand Lodge so as to provide for biennial sessions, in accordance with the decision arrived at during the last convention, held in New Haven last year.

Mr. Askins also read his annual address, and the reports of the grand secretary and grand treasurer were submitted and referred to the auditing committee. The report of J. W. Davis, delegate to the Odd Fellows' Hall Association, was presented and was referred to a special committee.

A. O. H. Notes.

On the fourth Sunday of September the degree work of the order will be resumed. A large class of candidates is in waiting, and the degree corps will do all possible to make the exemplification an interesting one. The four degrees will be given at Maccabee Temple.

Religious.

Elders' Union Meets.

The opening fall meeting of the Presbyterian Elders' Union was held last Wednesday evening in the Riverdale Church. Reports were received from the various committees which had assisted in the Sunday evening services of that church during the summer. The reports were regarded as of most gratifying character. F. L. Middleton gave an account of the organization and growth of the Riverdale Church, and requested the union to continue in charge of the services upon each alternate Sunday. The request was granted and committees appointed.

At the close of the business session the members of the union partook of refreshments supplied by the ladies of the church and served in the chapel adjoining, which had been beautifully and artistically decorated in pink and white.

The next meeting of the union will be held in the First Church, this city, the third Wednesday in October.

Annual Meeting Held.

The annual meeting of Eldbrooke Epworth League was held in Eldbrooke M. E. Church last Tuesday evening. The constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: President, Frank T. Israel; first vice president, Mrs. N. E. Bura; third vice president, William Freer; fourth vice president, B. F. Posten; secretary, Herbert E. Riley; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Riley. Delegates to the District League convention were elected as follows: The Rev. E. H. Smith, Mrs. F. T. Israel, William Freer, Miss Florence Thompson, Miss Elsie Paxton. Nine new members were elected, and it was decided to observe the first Sunday in October as Bible study day. The pastor will preach a sermon in the evening appropriate to the occasion.

Arrangements have been completed for the echo meeting the 25th. The program will include addresses by the Rev. F. J. Pretymann, the Rev. J. D. Blakemore, Mrs. M. M. Mitchell, J. F. Engle; solo, Mrs. Thompson; duet, Miss Thompson and Mrs. H. E. Riley. A social hour will complete the program.

Reception to Pastor.

The North Carolina Avenue Methodist Protestant Church members gave a reception to the pastor, the Rev. A. Norman Ward, Wednesday night. Mr. Ward has been absent for a month in the West.

The Rev. R. S. Lawrenson, who filled the pulpit in Mr. Ward's absence, presided at the reception, and a short address was delivered by Rev. A. S. Beane, pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church, after which the Rev. Mr. Ward commencing at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is urged, as a pleasant time is in store for those participating.

A very good meeting of Division No. 1 took place on the first Sunday of September. Not for an instant during the summer did the interest lag in No. 1. It was decided at the September meeting to have special features on the first Sunday of October, when No. 1 meets again.

Divisions Nos. 2, 4, and 7 will meet this evening, the day on which the immortal Emmet was executed, exactly one hundred years ago. Each division will appropriately commemorate the day by the reading of Emmet's last speech and otherwise calling attention to Ireland's most cherished martyr in the sacred cause of human freedom.

Brother George A. Malone, treasurer of Division No. 2, left for Salt Lake City on the 9th instant, where he has gone to attend the convention of the International Union of Electrical Workers, representing Local Union No. 26, of Washington.

Brother Edward J. Brosnan, of Division No. 2, died at his home, 24 I Street northeast, on September 5. He was a highly esteemed member of A. O. H. For nearly a year past he has been a patient sufferer and has been confined almost entirely to his home. He was a man of noble character and of a kind and charitable disposition. His record in Division No. 2 was an honorable one.

The hall committee of last February have finished their labors and have turned a very handsome sum over to State Treasurer Myers for a pro rata distribution among the divisions. The committee worked indefatigably, and it is hoped that their efforts will be duly appreciated by the district board.

Division No. 4 has met with a heavy loss in the death of Brother Michael Burke, whose requiem was sung in St. Dominic's Church on Labor Day. Brother Burke was one of the most patriotic Irishmen in Washington, always ready and anxious to give liberally and freely of his time and means to any project looking to the betterment of his fellow-countrymen at home and abroad.

Division No. 5 mourns the loss of two of its most active members within the past few months, namely, Brothers Thomas P. Diggins and James P. Neacey, both charter members.

There was a national directory meeting of the A. O. H. held at the Catholic Summer School, Cliff Haven, N. Y., during the week of August 27. A rousing reception was tendered the national officers and directors by the several hundred students at the school on the evening of August 27.

The A. O. H. again made a splendid appearance at the cornerstone laying of the new Dominican College at the Catholic University early in August.

was introduced and spoke briefly. A musical program was rendered by Miss Wilson, Mrs. Mary Miller Scott, the Rev. J. H. Straughn, the Guilford Trio, and Messrs. Lownd and Ferbershaw, and little Miss Roberta Neurath recited. The church was handsomely decorated, and refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. There was a large crowd in attendance.

St. Andrew Brotherhood Convention.

The annual national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in Denver, Col., from October 7 to 11. Several members of local chapters will attend as delegates. A splendid program has been arranged. Some of the church's bishops and hundreds of prominent laymen will be present at the convention.

Women's Missionary Society.

The annual meeting of the Baltimore branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, consisting of the various societies in Maryland, East Virginia, District of Columbia, and all the Southern Atlantic States, will be held in the Metropolitan Church here Wednesday and Thursday, October 7 and 8. Besides the regular business that will be considered by the body, the coming national convention of the society, which is to be held in Baltimore, beginning Thursday, October 29, and continuing one week, will come in for considerable discussion. The executive committee, under whose auspices the convention is given, consists of the secretaries of the eleven districts of the church in the United States. There will also be two delegates from each branch to be present, making a total of thirty-three delegates. All the editors of the various papers of that denomination and the literature committee, composed of Mrs. R. H. Pooley, of Rockford, Ill.; Mrs. Charlotte Wilder, of Manhattan, Kan., and Miss Elizabeth Northrop, of Waltham, Mass., will attend all the meetings.

It is expected that representatives of the society from all parts of the country will be present and participate, including a number of missionaries, who will deliver addresses before the meeting. Among the missionaries who will attend the convention are Miss Lewis, Japan; Miss Miller, Korea; Miss Nicolls, India; Miss Bendu, Japan; Miss Linkreger, Mexico; Miss Young, Japan; Miss Parkinson, China; Miss Martin, Malaysia; Miss Varney, China; Miss Inghoff, India; Miss Daniels, Japan; Miss Melters, Japan; Miss Blackburn, Bulgaria; Miss Vichery, Italy, and Miss Todd, China. Among the prominent speakers that are expected to be present are Bishop Cyrus D. Fess, Miss Elizabeth R. Bender, of Tokyo, Japan, and Mrs. William Butler, widow of the Rev. Dr. Butler, who established missions in India and Mexico.

Patriotic.

Minute Men Who Go to New York.

Under the personal direction of Col. M. A. Winter, Lieut. Col. E. R. Campbell, Adj. M. M. Lewis, and Acting Majors Burnette and Brown, the preliminary preparations for the battalion of armed and equipped Minute Men of the First Regiment to attend the military parade in New York, and ceremonies at Madison Square Garden have been completed. Following is the roster of the rank and file who leave Washington Tuesday, October 6, on a special train:

First drill team, selected September 11—E. Westerland, C. A. Sidman, J. P. Ruppel, J. C. McConnell, E. H. Schofield, D. Tierney, and A. J. Hawkins, of Company A; L. D. Cummins, and G. W. Byron, of Company B; T. F. Wagsatt, of Company E; Robert Brown, J. E. Payne, C. Brown, and W. G. Copley, of Company F; J. S. Hopkins, C. Sears, S. Holland, and L. Bone, of Company G; J. B. Baker, C. C. Dunn, J. M. Connell, William Weisback, M. Jacobs, J. G. Meyers, C. Mansfield, and J. B. Aveling, of Company I; P. L. Woodridge, of Company K; George L. Fisher, and A. St. Clair, of Company G.

Second drill team, selected September 14—T. F. Lane, of Company E; C. Dolph and W. F. Barlow, of Company A; John L. Sherry, of Company E; C. R. Sherwood, Company I; W. B. Horn, O. W. Wyatt, J. Etter, W. B. Irbin, and J. A. Baxter, of Company B; E. F. Rutter, J. A. Loughran, L. B. Ernest, C. C. Weeks, and William C. McCurdy, of Company E; F. H. Heidenreich, of Company G; H. D. Adams, of Company E; G. M. Blanchard, and R. N. Faulkner, of Company G; W. G. Wise, F. H. Farmer, P. J. Farmer, C. Feller, and L. Sacks, of Company I; George Peter, C. G. Hainsworth, J. D. Cushman, S. J. Collins, William H. Werden, A. D. Collins, E. F. Simpson, and P. A. Vlerick, of Company K.

The Minute Men File and Drum Corps.

An enthusiastic meeting and enjoyable dance was given by the George Dewey Naval Command of the Spanish War Veterans in the Spanish War Veterans' Hall, at 719 Sixth Street northwest, Monday evening. The attendance was unusually large and a great deal of important business was transacted by Captain Gaynes and the committee.

Dancing began about 9 o'clock and lasted until midnight, and everyone had an enjoyable time.

Commonwealth Clubs.

Eulogies on Vincent Boring.

A special session of the Kentucky Republican Club was held Friday evening at 514 Ninth Street for the purpose of making appropriate action on the death of Hon. Vincent Boring, late Representative in Congress from the Eleventh Kentucky district, and to discuss the pending gubernatorial campaign in the Blue Grass State. President Harry Giovannelli presided, and Milo Shanks was secretary.

The high esteem in which the deceased Representative was held was evidenced by the remarks of those who spoke. The chair appointed Messrs. John W. Langley, Jackson Morris, George Baber, S. F. Fottlinger, and Milo Shanks a committee to draft suitable resolutions. The committee submitted a report, which was adopted by a rising vote.

Several members made addresses eulogistic of the life and character of the deceased Representative, among the number who spoke being Col. George Baber, Hon. John W. Langley, Hon. Jackson Morris, John Speed Smith, Luther M. Walter, Fred N. Webber, and Harry Giovannelli.

Aside from the memorial services, considerable interest was manifested in the Kentucky campaign, and several speeches and reports were made along this line, the tenor of which indicated that the Republicans have great hopes of winning the State offices at the approaching election. The meeting was one of the largest attended yet held by the local organization.

The president announced an open meeting for Friday evening, October 2, at which time Hon. John W. Yerkes, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, will deliver an address.

Club Members to Go Home to Vote.

The Ohio Republican Association held an enthusiastic meeting last Friday night at Loyal Legion Hall, President D. K. Watson in the chair, and W. L. Symons acting as secretary.

The president appointed Major Fred C. Bryan, T. M. Sullivan, and Charles G. Morrison a committee to secure reduced transportation rates for Ohio voters, and their families who intend going home to the November election.

The president was authorized to appoint a committee of ten to meet Hon. Myron T. Herrick, Republican candidate for governor, on the occasion of his visit to this city to participate in the exercises of the unveiling of the Sherman statue. The following gentlemen were elected to membership: W. G. Waxfield, B. F. Lash, J. W. Bell, Charles Malloy, Charles Toner, L. C. Hanna, L. L. Marks, A. S. Mitchell, A. E. Fearn, and T. F. Davis.

PROFESSIONAL.

Women's National Press Association.

The Woman's National Press Association held the first meeting of the season Friday evening in the parlors of the W. C. T. U., Frances Graham French presiding. Reports of officers were followed by the election of Mrs. W. H. E. Masser, Los Angeles, Cal., an associate member of the association. Mrs. Mary Louise Barrol, Danbury, Conn.; Mrs. Ella F. Thomas, San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Price Brown, Philadelphia, Pa., who had been informally voted associate members by the executive board in Atlantic City, were confirmed at the meeting last night.

Miss Mabel G. Foster, vice president in Italy for the International Press Union, an affiliated society of the W. N. P. A., gave a resume of the experiences of a woman trying to do newspaper work in Italy. The difficulties encountered by the woman reporter in Rome, according to Miss Foster, amount to social ostracism and even threats for her life.

The eight delegates from the W. N. P. A. to the International League of Press Clubs, which met in Atlantic City in June, reported the success of the meeting. These reports were followed by a short talk on woman's work among Japanese women emigrants in California by Mrs. E. H. McIntosh, who, for fourteen years, has been a missionary in California.

At 9:30 o'clock the association adjourned to meet October 16.

HISTORY OF FURNITURE FROM ANCIENT EPOCHS

Interesting Pamphlet Published by Hub Furniture Company.

The Hub Furniture Company has now on the press an illustrated booklet entitled "The Periods of Furniture," giving a concise resume of all the leading types of furniture with their description and derivations.

The book treats of furniture as far back as the time of the